

Session 1

ART CLASS TOPICS

Mixed-Up Media

Get ready for mash-ups, mix-ups, and messes in this mixed-media class. Explore a variety of painting, collage, and 3-D techniques and learn how to combine your favorite methods to create original works of mixed-up art!

Food Art

Learn about famous food artists and colorful plates as you become a color wheel Master Chef! Create mixed media works of art inspired by food, and use potatoes, apples, and even marshmallows to create delectable prints. It's art that looks good enough to eat. Please note these works of art can only be savored with the eyes!

Famous Innovators!

Take an adventurous look at should-be-famous artists and the paths they forged! Create sculptures like Augusta Savage and Maya Lin. Explore the photography of Dorothea Lange. Make art inspired by the Tiffany stained glass designer Clara Driscoll. Travel around the world and through the ages as you draw, paint, sculpt and explore new artists.

Boom-Boom-Whack

Come one, come all to the greatest BoomWhacker class of them all! Learn percussion and pitch as you play classic sing-a-long songs and pop favorites in your very own BoomWhacker band. Develop a strong sense of rhythm as you work as an ensemble to play songs for a thumping, whacking, and musical good time.

Around the World in 80 Plays!

Grab your passport and pack your bags! Travel around the world and through time experiencing different forms of theatre. Explore theatre from Ancient Japan, Apartheid Africa, Mid-Century America and Ancient Greece!

Xylophone Band

Learn to play the xylophone and other unique percussion instruments! Build a xylophone band as you work together to create memorable performances and learn to the basics of reading music.

Camp Adler classes are subject to change. Classes will be decided by age and enrollment numbers. Custom schedules are not possible in 2021. All students will have a variety of art, music, and drama classes throughout their camp day.

Art projects change each session. Any repeated class from one session to the next will have a variety of new projects for campers enrolled in multiple sessions.

Campers will receive their final class schedules on the first day of Camp.

Art on the Move!

This class just won't sit still! Some art moves, and some only gives the impression of movement. Can you spot the difference? Make mobiles, optical illusions, flipbooks, and wearable art in this mixed-media class for movers and shakers.

Art Experiments

Artists will love concocting creative experiments in the Adler Art Lab! Use a variety of exciting materials to make bubbly, messy, and surprising art. Explore today's coolest art experiments-- THEN-- make some experimental art of your very own!

In the Open Air

Go outside and spend time exploring the Adler Center's gardens this summer! Paint landscapes, use nature to create works of art, and paint and sketch some of the butterflies, birds, and bees in the Adler Center's new native species garden.

Aloha, Adler

It's time to get tropical! Learn the basics of ukulele in this group class. Read chords and rhythms as you explore the sounds of Hawaii and learn how ukes are used in today's most popular songs. Learn how to compose a song of your very own using chord progressions. By the end of camp, our tropical ensemble will have enough experience to perform together! Instruments are provided.

Improv!

Laugh your way through the summer! Learn the building blocks of improvisation and techniques for successful scene work. Learn how to initiate scenes, be a good scene partner, and create off-the-cuff stories with clear beginnings, middles and ends. Explore the basics of improv teamwork: agreement, active listening, using your environment, understanding stage status, narrative, and supporting your teammates!
