

Camp Adler

During each three-week session, campers will enjoy four different classes based in art, dance, theater, music, and nature. Beyond the creative class experience, campers also participate in a variety of group games and activities, and get to explore within our Forest/Nature programming. When enrolling in Camp Adler, parents have the option to select camper preferences. Campers are assigned classes based on their preferences.

ART, MUSIC,
DRAMA, DANCE, NATURE

CLASS HIGHLIGHTS:

- Art: Drawing, mixed media, ceramics, puppetry, photography, portraiture
- Music: Ukulele, xylophone, singing, bucket drumming, solfege, composition
- Drama/Dance: Improv, musical theater, scene study, movement, choreography
- Nature: Native plant identifying, natural dying, collections, hikes, fort making

REGISTRATION OPENS
JANUARY 31 AT 9AM

SESSION DATES:

Session I: June 9 - 27

Session II: July 7 - 25

No camp June 30 - July 4